Current Federal Bills of Significance:

H.R. 620: ADA Notification Bill

Larry Wanger provided the committee with a legislative update regarding H.R. 620. Larry stressed to the committee this bill is currently the highest priority for disability advocates. Although AZSILC did not sign on to an organizational letter opposing this legislation, Larry suggested individuals continue to contact representatives about H.R. 620.

Update on Proposed federal FY18 budget and impact on IL programs

Larry Wanger also provided the committee with an update on the federal budget, which has been approved until December 2017. Later this week, Congress is scheduled to vote on significant tax cuts that might have a long-term effect on the funding of independent living.

Wendy Swager called for any questions. There were no questions at this time.

Access Barriers to Healthcare and Next Steps:

Larry Wanger updated the committee on his work developing a series of pages that can go on the AZSILC website for general information about accessible healthcare, links to the AZSILC survey, and directions on how to file a civil rights complaint. Larry plans to share a draft with the committee later this week or the beginning of next week. When the language is finalized, Larry Wanger stated he will send the information to the Centers for Independent Living, ACCESS, and the Arizona Developmental Disabilities Planning Council. Wendy inquired if the full council is required to vote their approval of the language. Larry stated he did not think providing this information on the website required a formal vote since the AZSILC was not taking a specific position.

Larry Wanger reported to the committee a meeting he attended with ACCESS. This agency is asking for their providers to develop accessibility plans for parking lots, exam rooms, diagnosis equipment, and operational procedures. Provider participation is voluntary. A follow up meeting is planned for December 2017. Wendy Swager asked how ACCESS plans to get the information out to the general public. Larry answered this information is going to be available online and

Announcements:

Wendy Swager stated she has seen this barrier at her doctors' offices too.
